MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU)

BETWEEN

UDAI PRATAP COLLEGE, VARANASI, INDIA

AND

RAJARSHI SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY, VARANASI

THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU) is executed at Varanasi on 5th day of November 2021 by and between Udai Pratap College, Varanasi, India, an Autonomous Institution affiliated to MGKVP, Varanasi; recognized by UGC under Section 12 B & 2f of the UGC Act, 1956, having its registered office at Varanasi-221002, India and represented by its Principal Dr. Dharmendra Kumar Singh hereinafter referred to as 'UPC' (which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the First Party;

and

Rajarshi School of Management and Technology, Varanasi, an Institution affiliated to AKTU Lucknow and MGKVP, Varanasi, recognized by AICTE and represented by its Director Prof. Aman Gupta hereinafter referred to as 'RSMT' (which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the Second Party (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties" and individually as "the Party"). WITNESSETH AS FOLLOWS: -

UPC and RSMT have many areas of common interest in academic, education and research such as Sciences, Social Science, and Humanities considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research, and administrative.

NOW THEREFORE, UPC and RSMT have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (here-in-after referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

1. Objectives

The goal is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for better experience, and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity, best effort, mutual benefit, and frequent interactions. UPC and RSMT are agreeing:

- 1.1 to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes

- 1.2 to jointly organize short-term continuing education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.3 to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.4 to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research.

2. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

UPC and RSMT agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and RSMT.

3. Exchange of Faculty and Staff

UPC and RSMT agree to encourage collaboration between faculty and staff from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to, or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms. Notwithstanding the above, UPC and RSMT will examine ways to identify financial resources to fund international travel by their faculty/students.

4. Student Exchange

UPC and RSMT agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- 4.1 Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- 4.2 An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- 4.3 An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- 4.4 His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- 4.5 The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- 4.6 The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.

- 4.7 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- 4.8 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- 4.9 To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- 4.10 The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

5. Exchange of Scientific and Technical Material

UPC and RSMT will exchange information on research and educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes. Further, UPC and RSMT agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

UPC and RSMT agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and RSMT.

7. Intellectual Property

UPC and RSMT agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.

8. Tenure and Termination

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for five years, and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, neither UPC nor RSMT will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, both the institutions will ensure that all activities in progress are allowed to complete successfully.

Udai Pratap College, Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh and Rajarshi School of Management and Technology, Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

and

Harish Chandra Post Graduate College, Varanasi, India, an Institution affiliated to MGKVP, Varanasi; recognized by UGC under Section 12 B & 2f of the UGC Act, 1956, having its registered office at Varanasi-221001, India and represented by its Principal Dr. Purushottam Singh hereinafter referred to as 'MBSPGC' (which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the Second Party (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties" and individually as "the Party"). WITNESSETH AS FOLLOWS:-

UPC and MBSPGC have many areas of common interest in academic, education and research such as Sciences, Social Science, and Humanities considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research, and administrative.

NOW THEREFORE, UPC and MBSPGC have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (here-in-after referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

1. Objectives

The goal is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for better experience, and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity, best effort, mutual benefit, and frequent interactions. Udai Pratap College and Maharaj Balwant Singh Post Graduate College are agree:

- 1.1 to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes
- 1.2 to jointly organize short-term continuing education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.3 to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.4 to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research.

2. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

UPC and MBSPGC agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and MBSPGC.

3. Exchange of Faculty and Staff

UPC and MBSPGC agree to encourage collaboration between faculty and staff from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to, or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms. Notwithstanding the above, UPC and MBSPGC will examine ways to identify financial resources to fund international travel by their faculty/students.

4. Student Exchange

UPC and MBSPGC agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- 4.1 Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- 4.2 An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- 4.3 An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.

- 4.4 His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- 4.5 The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- 4.6 The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.
- 4.7 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- 4.8 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- 4.9 To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- 4.10 The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

5. Exchange of Scientific and Technical Material

UPC and MBSPGC will exchange information on research and educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes. Further, UPC and MBSPGC agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

UPC and MBSPGC agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and MBSPGC.

7. Intellectual Property

UPC and MBSPGC agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.

8. Tenure and Termination

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for five years, and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, neither UPC or MBSPGC will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, both the institutions will ensure that all activities in progress are allowed to complete successfully.

Udai Pratap College, Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh and Maharaj Balwant Singh Post Graduate College, Gangapur, Varanasi Uttar Pradesh welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

UPC and SAHMPV agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and SAHMPV.

7. Intellectual Property

UPC and SAHMPV agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.

8. Tenure and Termination

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for five years, and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, neither UPC nor SAHMPV will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, both the institutions will ensure that all activities in progress are allowed to complete successfully.

Udai Pratap College, Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh and Swami Atulanand Hindu Mahavidyalaya, Parmanandpur, Varanasi Uttar Pradesh welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

(An Autonomous Constituent College of University of Allahabad, Praygaraj)

AND

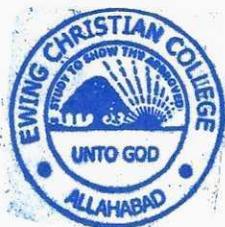

UDAI PRATAP COLLEGE, VARANASI, UTTAR PRADESH, INDIA
(An Autonomous Constituent College of Mahatma Gandhi Kashi Vidyapith, Varanasi)

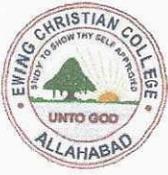

THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU) is executed at Prayagraj on this 19th (Tuesday) day of July, 2022 by and between Ewing Christian College, Prayagraj, Uttar Pradesh, India, an Autonomous Institution affiliated to University of Allahabad, Prayagraj; recognized by UGC under Section 12 B & 2f of the UGC Act, 1956, having its registered office at Prayagraj, 211003, India and represented by its Principal Dr. Arun Salick Moses hereinafter referred to as 'ECC' (which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the First Party;

and Udai Pratap College, Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh, India, an Institution affiliated to MGKVP, Varanasi; recognized by UGC under Section 12 B & 2f of the UGC Act, 1956, having its registered office at Varanasi-221002, India and represented by its Principal Dr. Dharmendra Kumar Singh hereinafter referred to as 'UPC' (which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the Second Party (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties" and individually as "the Party").

WITNESSETH AS FOLLOWS:-

ECC and UPC have many areas of common interest in academic, education and research such as Sciences, Social Science, and Humanities considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research, and administrative.

NOW THEREFORE, ECC and UPC have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (here-in-after referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

1. Objectives

The goal is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for better experience, and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity, best effort, mutual benefit, and frequent interactions. Ewing Christian College, Prayagraj, and Uday Pratap College are agree-

- 1.1 to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes
- 1.2 to jointly organize short-term continuing education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.3 to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.4 to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research.

2. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

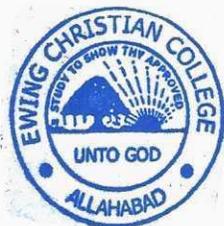

ECC and UPC agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between ECC and UPC.

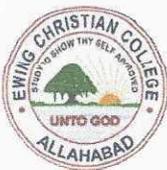

3. Exchange of Faculty and Staff

ECC and UPC agree to encourage collaboration between faculty and staff from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to, or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms. Notwithstanding the above, ECC and UPC will examine ways to identify financial resources to fund international travel by their faculty/students.

4. Student Exchange

ECC and UPC agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- 4.1 Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- 4.2 An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- 4.3 An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- 4.4 His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- 4.5 The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- 4.6 The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.
- 4.7 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- 4.8 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- 4.9 To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- 4.10 The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

5. Exchange of Scientific and Technical Material

ECC and UPC will exchange information on research and educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes. Further, ECC and UPC agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

1. "Cambridge English Course" हेतु महाविद्यालय को कोई भी धनराशि व्यय नहीं करनी पड़ेगी।
2. महाविद्यालय स्तर पर एक एग्जामिनेन्ट किया जायेगा।
3. विद्यार्थियों ने इस कोर्स के तहत क्या ज्ञान अर्जित किया है इसका समय-समय पर ऑनलाइन टेस्ट कैंम्ब्रिज विश्वविद्यालय प्रेस द्वारा लिया जायेगा जिसके आधार पर उन्हें प्रमाण-पत्र प्रदान किया जायेगा।
4. यह कोर्स चार सेमेस्टर का होगा जिसे विद्यार्थी अपने स्नातक स्तर के पाठ्यक्रम के साथ ही ऑनलाइन माध्यम से पूरा कर लेंगे।
5. इस कोर्स की मान्यता विश्व स्तर पर है।
6. "Cambridge English Course" का प्रमाण-पत्र यह प्रमाणित करता है कि प्रमाण-पत्र प्राप्त करने वाले को अंग्रेजी लिखने व बोलने का ज्ञान है।
7. विद्यार्थियों को सरकारी एवं प्राइवेट दोनों तरह की नौकरियों को प्राप्त करने में यह कोर्स सहायक होगा।
8. महाविद्यालय में होने वाले नैक मूल्यांकन एक्कीडिटेशन की दृष्टि से भी उपयोगी है इससे शैक्षणिक गुणवत्ता की श्रेणी में लाभ होगा।
9. इस कोर्स का यह भी लाभ होगा कि कैंम्ब्रिज विश्वविद्यालय प्रेस के शिक्षक/पदाधिकारी महाविद्यालय में समय-समय आकर निःशुल्क व्याख्यान देंगे।
10. भारत के सभी अच्छे विश्वविद्यालयों एवं महाविद्यालयों में वर्तमान में यह कोर्स चल रहा है।

अतः आपसे अनुरोध है कि उक्त तथ्यों को दृष्टिगत रखते हुए इस हेतु अपनी स्वीकृति प्रदान करने का कष्ट करें।

महोदय,

कृपया कैंब्रिज विश्वविद्यालय प्रेस (नवीन जोशी) द्वारा ईमेल के माध्यम से दिनांक 05 जुलाई, 2022 को प्रेषित "English Course & Assessment" के प्रस्ताव (छायाप्रति संलग्न) का सन्दर्भ ग्रहण करने का कष्ट करें। यह कोर्स स्वैच्छिक रूप से स्नातक स्तर के विद्यार्थी ले सकते हैं। यह कोर्स विद्यार्थियों के कौशल विकास एवं रोजगार के अवसर में वृद्धि के दृष्टिकोण से काफी उपयोगी है। यह एक ऑनलाइन कोर्स होगा। इस कोर्स को काफी बेहतर तरीके से डिजाइन किया गया है एवं इस तरह के अन्य कोर्सों के अपेक्षाकृत इसकी फीस भी कम है। इस कोर्स के तहत विद्यार्थियों को प्रिन्ट बुक, ई-बुक, डिजिटल वर्कबुक, वीडियो प्रोग्राम एवं क्लास आडियो आदि की सुविधा प्रदान की जायेगी। महाविद्यालय में नैक विजिट को देखते हुए इसकी उपयोगिता और भी बढ़ जाती है। कैंब्रिज यूनिवर्सिटी प्रेस से कोलेब्रेशन नैक की दृष्टि से उपयोगी होगा।

अतः आपसे अनुरोध है कि उक्त तथ्यों के आलोक में इस हेतु अपनी स्वीकृति प्रदान करने का कष्ट करें।

Conditions of Sale - Goods

THE CUSTOMER AND CAMBRIDGE AGREE THAT THE SALE AND PURCHASE OF GOODS ARE MADE UNDER THESE CONDITIONS. THE CUSTOMER'S ORDER OF THE PRODUCTS SHALL CONSTITUTE ACCEPTANCE OF THESE CONDITIONS.

1 DEFINITIONS

- 1.1 The definitions and rules of Interpretation in this Condition apply in these Conditions.
- 1.2 Business Day: a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) when banks in New Delhi are open for business.
- 1.3 Customer: the person, organisation, institution or company who purchases the Goods from Cambridge pursuant to these Conditions.
- 1.4 Cambridge: Cambridge University Press India Pvt Ltd trading as Cambridge University Press having its registered office at 4843/24, 2nd Floor, Anson Road, Daryaganj, New Delhi - 110002.
- 1.5 Conditions: the terms and conditions set out in this document as amended by Cambridge from time to time.
- 1.6 Contract: the contract between Cambridge and the Customer for the sale and purchase of the Goods in accordance with these Conditions.
- 1.7 Delivery Location: Cambridge's nominated warehouse or the location of the Customer's carrier, as set out in the Order.
- 1.8 Goods: the goods (or any part of them) set out in the Order.
- 1.9 Intellectual Property Rights: any and all patents, rights to inventions, copyright and related rights, trade marks, service marks, trade, business and domain names, rights in trade dress or get-up, rights in goodwill or to sue for passing off, unfair competition rights, rights in designs, rights in computer software, database rights, moral rights, rights in confidential information (including know-how and trade secrets) and any other intellectual property rights, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all applications for and renewals or extensions of such rights, and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection in any part of the world.
- 1.10 Order: an order requesting delivery of Goods, submitted by the Customer to Cambridge containing the specific details of the Goods, quantity, and any other special conditions, if any.
- 1.11 Trade Marks: Cambridge's trade marks used in respect of the Goods.

2 CONTRACT

- 2.1 The Order shall only be deemed to be accepted when Cambridge issues acceptance of the Order, at which point the Contract shall come into existence.
- 2.2 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms the Customer seeks to impose or incorporate (including any terms or Conditions the Customer purports to apply under any purchase order, confirmation of order, specification or other document) or that may otherwise be implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.
- 2.3 The Customer acknowledges that it has not relied on any statement, promise or representation made or given by or on behalf of Cambridge not set out in the Contract.

3 PRODUCTS

- 3.1 All samples, drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Cambridge and any descriptions or illustrations contained in Cambridge's catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Goods described in them. They shall not form part of the Contract or any other contract between the Customer and Cambridge and this is not a sale by sample.

4 DELIVERY

- 4.1 The Customer shall collect the Goods from the Delivery Location, within three (3) Business Days of Cambridge giving it notice that the Goods are ready.
- 4.2 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed:
- 4.2.1 when the Goods have been loaded at Cambridge's nominated warehouse on the means of transport provided by the Customer; or
- 4.2.2 if the Goods are not being collected at Cambridge's nominated warehouse: when the Goods are ready for unloading and placed at the disposal of the Customer's carrier, or another person nominated by the Customer.
- 4.3 Any dates specified by Cambridge for delivery of the Goods are intended to be an estimate only. Time for delivery shall not be made of the essence by notice.
- 4.4 If for any reason the Customer fails to accept delivery of any of the Goods within three (3) Business Days of Cambridge notifying the Customer that the Goods are ready for delivery, or Cambridge is unable to deliver the Goods on time because the Customer has not provided appropriate instructions, documents, licences or authorisations:
- 4.4.1 the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered at 09.00am three (3) Business Days following notification by Cambridge that the Goods are ready; and
- 4.4.2 Cambridge shall store the Goods until delivery takes place, and charge the Customer for all related costs and expenses (including, without limitation, storage and insurance).
- 4.5 If 10 Business Days after Cambridge has notified the Customer that the Goods are ready for delivery, the Customer has not accepted delivery of them, Cambridge may resell or otherwise dispose of all or part of the Goods. Subject always to the provisions of Condition 9 (Quality), no refunds shall be payable by Cambridge to the Customer at any time for Goods delivered by Cambridge but not accepted by the Customer.
- 4.6 The Customer shall not be entitled to reject the Goods if Cambridge delivers up to and including 5 per cent more or less than the quantity of Goods ordered, but a pro-rata adjustment shall be made to the Order invoice on receipt of notice from the Customer that the wrong quantity of Goods was delivered.
- 4.7 Cambridge may deliver the Goods by instalments, which shall be invoiced and paid for separately. Each instalment shall constitute a separate Contract. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment.
- 4.8 The Customer shall be responsible for checking the quantity of Goods delivered in each instalment at the time of delivery and notifying Cambridge promptly of any shortfall.
- 4.9 Cambridge shall not be liable for any non-delivery of Goods unless the Customer gives written notice to Cambridge within 5 Business Days of the date of delivery.
- 4.10 Cambridge's maximum liability for non-delivery of the Goods shall be limited to, at Cambridge's sole discretion, either supplying the missing Goods within a reasonable time or issuing a credit note at the pro rata Contract rate against any invoice raised for such Goods.

5 RISK AND OWNERSHIP

- 5.1 The risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.
- 5.2 Ownership of the Goods shall not pass to the Customer until Cambridge has received in full (in cash or cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of the Goods and any other goods that Cambridge has supplied to the Customer.

5.3. Subject to Condition 5.4, the Customer may resell or use the Goods in the ordinary course of its business (but not otherwise) before Cambridge receives payment for the Goods. However, if the Customer resells the Goods before that time:

5.3.1. it does so as principal and not as Cambridge's agent, and

5.3.2. title to the Goods shall pass from Cambridge to the Customer immediately before the time at which resale by the Customer occurs.

5.4. If before title to the Goods passes to the Customer the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in Condition 13.2, then, without limiting any other right or remedy Cambridge may have:

5.4.1. the Customer's right to resell the Goods or use them in the ordinary course of its business ceases immediately; and

5.4.2. Cambridge may at any time:

a) require the Customer to deliver up all Goods in its possession which have not been resold, or irrevocably incorporated into another product; and

b) if the Customer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Goods are stored in order to recover them.

5.5. Until ownership of the Goods has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall:

5.5.1. hold the Goods on a fiduciary basis as Cambridge's bailee;

5.5.2. store the Goods (at no cost to Cambridge) separately from all other goods of the Customer or any third party in such a way that they remain readily identifiable as Cambridge's property;

5.5.3. not remove, deface or obscure any identifying mark or packaging on or relating to the Goods, including by any use of marketing or pricing stickers;

5.5.4. maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition and keep them insured for their full price against all risks from the date of delivery;

5.5.5. notify Cambridge immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in Condition 13.2; and

5.5.6. give Cambridge such information relating to the Goods as Cambridge may require from time to time.

6. PRICE

6.1. Unless otherwise notified by Cambridge in writing, the price of the Goods shall be the price set out in Cambridge's published price list in effect on the date of delivery or deemed delivery.

6.2. The price of the Goods shall be exclusive of value added tax, any similar sales tax or any tax that replaces such sales taxes, insurance, and any customs, import or other duties charged in respect of the sale and importation of Goods into the country in which the Customer is located, all of which amounts the Customer shall pay in addition when it is due to pay for the Goods.

6.3. The Customer is responsible for obtaining, at its own cost, such import licences and other consents in relation to the Goods as are required from time to time.

6.4. Cambridge is responsible for obtaining, at its own cost, such export licences and other consents in relation to the Goods as are required from time to time.

6.5. Cambridge may, by giving notice to the Customer at any time up to five (5) Business Days before delivery, increase the price of the Goods to reflect any increase in the costs of the Goods due to:

6.5.1. any request by the Customer to change delivery date(s), quantities or types of Goods ordered, or the specification; or

6.5.2. any delay caused by any instructions of the Customer or failure by the Customer to give Cambridge adequate or accurate information or instructions; or

6.5.3. any factor beyond Cambridge's control (including foreign exchange fluctuations, increases in taxes and duties, and increases in labour, materials and other manufacturing costs).

7. PAYMENT

7.1. Subject to any agreed credit terms, payment of the price of the Goods is due in the invoiced currency on receipt of invoice. Cambridge may vary or withdraw any credit facilities without notice at any time for any reason.

7.2. Payment by debit or credit card is subject to Cambridge's prior approval and a handling fee. Any refunds to a debit or credit card shall be made only to the card on which the original payment was made.

7.3. Time for payment shall be of the essence.

7.4. No payment shall be deemed to have been received until Cambridge has received cleared funds.

7.5. All payments payable to Cambridge under the Contract shall become due immediately on its termination, notwithstanding any other provision.

7.6. Unless otherwise agreed between Cambridge and the Customer, the Customer shall make all payments due under the Contract in full without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (except for any deduction or withholding required by law, in which case the Customer will provide the certificates for the same to Cambridge in accordance with the requirements and timelines prescribed under the applicable law). Cambridge may at any time, without limiting any other rights or remedies it may have, set off any amount owing to it by the Customer against any amount payable by Cambridge to the Customer.

7.7. If the Customer fails to pay Cambridge any sum due pursuant to the Contract by the due date, the Customer shall pay interest on the overdue amount at the rate of 18%. Such interest shall accrue on a daily basis from the due date until actual payment of the overdue amount, whether before or after judgment. The Customer shall pay the interest together with the overdue amount.

8. RETURNS

8.1. Returns will only be accepted with Cambridge's prior written consent.

8.2. The Customer must seek permission from either:

8.2.1. the Customer's Cambridge sales representative; or 8.2.2. the relevant Cambridge sales department.

8.3. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Cambridge will only accept returns on the basis that:

8.3.1. for Academic Goods, the return is made between 6 and 12 months of delivery of the Goods to the Customer;

8.3.2. for any other Goods, the return is made within 18 months of delivery of the Goods to the Customer;

8.3.3. the Goods are in print at the time of return;

8.3.4. the return is documented with full invoice numbers;

8.3.5. the Customer packs the Goods with reasonable care;

8.3.6. the Goods are in re-saleable condition (undamaged, unmarked, and not priced);

- 8.3.7 the Customer pays for the cost of returning the Goods; and
- 8.3.8 no more than 10% of the value of Orders placed in any year is returned.
- 9 QUALITY
- 9.1 Cambridge warrants that (subject to the other provisions of these Conditions), upon delivery, the Goods shall be of satisfactory quality and free from defects as a result of faulty design, workmanship or materials.
- 9.2 Where Cambridge is not the manufacturer of the Goods, Cambridge shall endeavour to transfer to the Customer the benefit of any warranty or guarantee given to Cambridge.
- 9.3 Except as expressly set out above, the Goods are provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, and no other warranties, either express or implied are made with respect to the Goods, including but not limited to any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title or non-infringement or any other warranties that may arise from custom, trade practice or course of dealing. Cambridge does not warrant, guarantee, or make any representations regarding the use of or the results of the use of the Goods in terms of correctness, accuracy, reliability, or otherwise.
- 9.4 Subject to Condition 9.5, if:
- 9.4.1 the Customer gives written notice within 14 days from when the Customer discovers or ought to have discovered that some or all of the Goods do not comply with the warranties set out in Condition 9.1;
- 9.4.2 Cambridge is given a reasonable opportunity of examining such Goods; and
- 9.4.3 the Customer (if asked to do so by Cambridge) returns such Goods to Cambridge's place of business at the Customer's cost for the examination to take place there;
- Cambridge shall, at its option, repair or replace the defective Goods or refund the price of such Goods at the pro rata Contract rate.
- 9.5 Cambridge shall not be liable for a breach of any of the warranties in Condition 9.1 if:
- 9.5.1 the Customer makes any further use of such Goods after giving notice in accordance with Condition 9.4.1;
- 9.5.2 the defect arises because the Customer failed to follow Cambridge's oral or written instructions as to the storage, installation, commissioning or use of the Goods, or (if there are none) good trade practice;
- 9.5.3 the Customer alters or repairs such Goods without the written consent of Cambridge; or
- 9.5.4 the defect arises as a result of fair wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence or abnormal storage or working conditions.
- 9.6 Except as provided in this Condition 9 Cambridge shall have no liability to the Customer in respect of the Goods' failure to comply with the warranty set out in Condition 9.1.
- 9.7 Cambridge reserves the right at any time to withdraw any Product or any part of any Product. Cambridge shall refund the price of such Goods at the pro rata Contract rate provided that, if Cambridge so requests, the Customer shall, at Cambridge's expense, return the Goods or the part of such Goods to Cambridge.
- 9.8 These Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by Cambridge.
- 10 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
- 10.1 Nothing in these Conditions shall limit or exclude Cambridge's liability for:

- 10.1.1 death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or the negligence of its employees, agents or subcontractors (as applicable);
- 10.1.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or
- 10.1.3 any matter in respect of which it would be unlawful for Cambridge to exclude or restrict liability.
- 10.2 Subject to Condition 10.1:
- 10.2.1 Cambridge shall under no circumstances whatever be liable to the Customer, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for any loss of profit, or any indirect or consequential loss arising under or in connection with the Contract; and
- 10.2.2 Cambridge's total liability to the Customer in respect of all other losses arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in no circumstances exceed the price of the Goods.
- 11 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY
- 11.1 The Customer shall sell the Goods under the Trade Marks and shall not alter or make any addition to the labelling or packaging of the Goods displaying the Trade Marks without Cambridge's prior written consent. The Customer shall not alter, deface or remove any reference to the Trade Marks, any reference to Cambridge or any other name displayed to the Goods, their packaging or labelling.
- 11.2 Cambridge makes no representation or warranty about the validity or enforceability of the Trade Marks, nor as to whether they infringe any Intellectual Property Rights of third parties.
- 11.3 Nothing in these Conditions shall operate to transfer or license any Intellectual Property Rights between the Parties and all Cambridge's Intellectual Property Rights in the Goods shall remain vested in Cambridge.
- 12 FORCE MAJEURE
- 12.1 Neither Party shall be in breach of the Contract nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under it if such delay or failure results from an event, circumstance or cause beyond its reasonable control. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for 3 months, the Party not affected may terminate this Contract by giving 30 days' written notice to the affected Party.
- 13 TERMINATION
- 13.1 If the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in Condition 13.2, Cambridge may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Customer.
- 13.2 For the purposes of Condition 13.1, the relevant events are:
- 13.2.1 the Customer suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts, or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts, or is deemed either unable to pay its debts or as having no reasonable prospect of so doing;
- 13.2.2 the Customer commences negotiations with all or any class of its creditors with a view to rescheduling any of its debts, or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with its creditors;
- 13.2.3 a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding up of the Customer, other than for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation;
- 13.2.4 an application is made to court, or an order is made, for the appointment of an administrator or if a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given or if an administrator is appointed over the Customer;

- 13.2.5 the holder of a qualifying floating charge over the Customer's assets has become entitled to appoint or has appointed an administrative receiver;
- 13.2.6 a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over the Customer's assets or a receiver is appointed over the Customer's assets;
- 13.2.7 the Customer is the subject of a bankruptcy petition or order;
- 13.2.8 a creditor or encumbrancer of the Customer attaches or takes possession of, or a distress, execution, sequestration or other such process is levied or enforced on or sued against, the whole or any part of its assets and such attachment or process is not discharged within 14 days;
- 13.2.9 any event occurs, or proceeding is taken, with respect to the Customer in any jurisdiction to which it is subject that has an effect equivalent or similar to any of the events mentioned in Condition 13.2.1 to Condition 13.2.8 (inclusive);
- 13.2.10 the Customer suspends, threatens to suspend, ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its business;
- 13.2.11 the Customer's financial position deteriorates to such an extent that in Cambridge's opinion the Customer's capability to adequately fulfil its obligations under the Contract has been placed in jeopardy; and
- 13.2.12 the Customer dies or, by reason of illness or incapacity (whether mental or physical), is incapable of managing his or her own affairs.
- 13.3 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, Cambridge may suspend provision of the Goods under the Contract or any other contract between the Customer and Cambridge if the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in Condition 13.2.1 to Condition 13.2.12, or Cambridge reasonably believes that the Customer is about to become subject to any of them, or if the Customer fails to pay any amount due under this Contract on the due date for payment.
- 13.4 On termination of the Contract for any reason the Customer shall immediately pay to Cambridge all of Cambridge's outstanding unpaid invoices and interest.
- 13.5 Termination of the Contract, however arising, shall not affect any of the Parties' rights, remedies, obligations and liabilities that have accrued as at termination.
- 13.6 Conditions which expressly or by implication survive termination of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect.
- 14 DATA PROTECTION
- 14.1 Both parties will comply with all applicable privacy and data protection legislation, including the Indian Information Technology (Reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data or information) Rules, 2011.
- 14.2 The Customer will ensure that it has all necessary consents and notices in place to enable the lawful transfer of any personal data to Cambridge for the duration and purposes of the Contract.
- 15 BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION, CRIMINAL FINANCES & SANCTIONS
- 15.1 The Customer understands that Cambridge acts in accordance with relevant UK legislation including the Bribery Act 2010 and other applicable anti-bribery laws in the jurisdictions in which it operates ("the Acts"); and the Criminal Finances Act 2017 and other applicable tax evasion laws in the jurisdictions in which it operates.
- 15.2 The Customer warrants that it shall:
 - 15.2.1 comply with all applicable laws relating to anti-bribery and corruption;

- 15.2.2 ensure neither it, nor its employees, officers, or shareholders, or any of its subcontractors or their employees officers or shareholders, in the course of its performance of its obligations under this Contract, make, offer or request any undue financial or other advantage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under the Acts; and
- 15.2.3 promptly report to Cambridge any request, demand or offer made for undue financial or other advantage by or to the Customer or its employees or agents in connection with the performance of this Contract.
- 15.3 The Customer shall comply with all applicable economic sanctions laws, regulations and rules, including those promulgated by the Office of Foreign Asset Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury and by HM Treasury in the United Kingdom. In addition, the Customer shall not distribute any products directly or indirectly to any entity or individual located in Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria, or Cuba, without prior approval from Cambridge. Cambridge may suspend or terminate the agreement if Cambridge has reason to believe that the Customer is breaching or failing to comply with this provision.
- 16 NOTICES
- 16.1 Any notice or other communication given to a Party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing, addressed to that Party at its registered office (if it is a company) or its principal place of business (in any other case) or such other address as that Party may have specified to the other Party in writing in accordance with this Condition, and shall be delivered by hand, sent by pre-paid first class post or other next working day delivery service, commercial courier, or e-mail.
- 16.2 Notices shall be deemed received (i) if delivered by hand, on signature of a delivery receipt or at the time the notice is left at the proper address; (ii) if sent by pre-paid first class post or other next working day delivery service, at 9.00 am on the second working day after posting or at the time recorded by the delivery service and (iii) if sent by email, the date and time it was received.
- 17 OTHER
- 17.1 The Customer is responsible for obtaining, at its own cost, such import licences and other consents in relation to the Goods as are required from time to time and, if required by Cambridge, the Customer shall make those licences and consents available to Cambridge prior to the relevant shipment.
- 17.2 No variation to the Contract shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the Parties.
- 17.3 Cambridge may at any time assign or subcontract any of its rights or obligations under the Contract. The Customer may not assign any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of Cambridge.
- 17.4 If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this Condition shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract.
- 17.5 No failure by either Party in exercising any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver of it.
- 17.6 A person who is not a party to the Contract shall not have any rights to enforce its terms.
- 17.7 The Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the law of India.
- 17.8 Each Party irrevocably agrees that the courts of New Delhi shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this Contract or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).

NOW THEREFORE, UPC and PGC MALIKPURA have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (here-in-after referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

1. Objectives

The goal is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for better experience, and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity, best effort, mutual benefit, and frequent interactions. Udai Pratap College and Post Graduate College, Malikpura, Ghazipur are agree:

- 1.1 to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes
- 1.2 to jointly organize short-term continuing education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.3 to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.4 to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research.

2. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

UPC and PGC MALIKPURA agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and PGC MALIKPURA.

3. Exchange of Faculty and Staff

UPC and PGC MALIKPURA agree to encourage collaboration between faculty and staff from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to, or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms. Notwithstanding the above, UPC and PGC MALIKPURA will examine ways to identify financial resources to fund international travel by their faculty/students.

4. Student Exchange

UPC and PGC MALIKPURA agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- 4.1 Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- 4.2 An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- 4.3 An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- 4.4 His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- 4.5 The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- 4.6 The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.
- 4.7 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- 4.8 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- 4.9 To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- 4.10 The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

5. Exchange of Scientific and Technical Material

UPC and PGC MALIKPURA will exchange information on research and educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes. Further, UPC and PGC MALIKPURA agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

UPC and PGC MALIKPURA agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and PGC MALIKPURA.

7. Intellectual Property

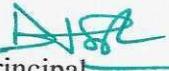

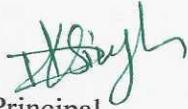

UPC and PGC MALIKPURA agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.

8. Tenure and Termination

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for five years, and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, neither UPC nor PGC MALIKPURA will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, both the institutions will ensure that all activities in progress are allowed to complete successfully.

Udai Pratap College, Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh and Post Graduate College, Malikpura, Ghazipur, Uttar Pradesh welcome the establishment of this Memorandum for cooperation and jointly agree to the provisions as set out above.

N. Prasad "Deen" hereinafter referred to as 'DoBMU' (which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the Second Party (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties" and individually as "the Party"). WITNESSETH AS FOLLOWS: -

UPC and DoBMU have many areas of common interest in academic, education and research such as Sciences, Social Science, and Humanities considerable advantage may be gained from their pursuit on a collaborative basis in the fields of academics, education and research, and administrative.

NOW THEREFORE, UPC and DoBMU have decided to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (here-in-after referred to as MoU), which defines the framework for the cooperation of the two institutions set out in the following sections.

1. Objectives

The goal is to foster collaboration, provide opportunity for better experience, and to facilitate advancement of knowledge on the basis of reciprocity, best effort, mutual benefit, and frequent interactions. UPC and DoBMU are agree:

- 1.1 to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes
- 1.2 to jointly organize short-term continuing education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein

1.3 to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein

1.4 to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research.

2. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

UPC and DoBMU agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and DoBMU.

3. Exchange of Faculty and Staff

UPC and DoBMU agree to encourage collaboration between faculty and staff from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to, or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms. Notwithstanding the above, UPC and DoBMU will examine ways to identify financial resources to fund international travel by their faculty/students.

4. Student Exchange

UPC and DoBMU agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

4.1 Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.

4.2 An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.

4.3 An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.

4.4 His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.

4.5 The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.

4.6 The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.

4.7 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.

- 4.8 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- 4.9 To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- 4.10 The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

5. Exchange of Scientific and Technical Material

UPC and DoBMU will exchange information on research and educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes. Further, UPC and DoBMU agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

UPC and DoBMU agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between UPC and DoBMU.

7. Intellectual Property

UPC and DoBMU agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.

8. Tenure and Termination

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for five years, and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, neither UPC nor DoBMU will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, both the institutions will ensure that all activities in progress are allowed to complete successfully.

- 1.2 to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes
- 1.3 to jointly organize short-term continuing education programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.4 to jointly organize seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.5 to jointly propose and engage in research or training programmes sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- 1.6 to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate, Post Graduate and Doctoral levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education and /or research.
- 1.7 to Co-supervising Ph.D. Students.

Both the parties further agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be separately determined and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation, etc.

2. Joint Sponsored Research, Development and Consulting

UPC and Agrikaash Prime LLP, agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in research or development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between the two parties.

3. Exchange of Faculty, Scientists and Staff

UPC and Agrikaash Prime LLP, agree to encourage collaboration between faculty and scientists from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to, or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment, including those concerning stipend, travel, and housing, name of the concerned faculty member will be worked out between the two parties.

4. Student Exchange

UPC and Agrikaash Prime LLP, agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student and from where he/she is expected to complete his/her degree. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- 4.1 Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- 4.2 An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- 4.3 An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- 4.4 His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- 4.5 The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- 4.6 The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-a-vis those offered at the home institution.
- 4.7 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- 4.8 If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- 4.9 To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- 4.10 The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

5. Exchange of Scientific and Technical Material

UPC and Agrikaash Prime LLP, will exchange information on research and educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes. Further, both the parties agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

6. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

UPC and Agrikaash Prime LLP, agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between both the parties.

7. Intellectual Property

- 7.1 UPC and Agrikaash Prime LLP, agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.
- 7.2 The extent of ownership shall be decided mutually depending upon the relative level of intellectual inputs made by the parties.
- 7.3 The expenditure incurred and to be incurred for the maintenance of IPR shall be borne by each party equally or in proportion to the extent of ownership as may be decided by authorized authorities of both the institutions mutually.
- 7.4 Publications, if any, in respect of the activities covered under this MOU shall be in the names of involved personnel from both parties with their mutual consent to share the authorship.
- 7.5 All ethical guidelines of research publication existent at both the Institutions will be followed strictly.

8. Financial Commitment

This MoU, being a co-operative and collaborative understanding for academic excellence and enhancement of quality of research activities, shall not create any legal and / or financial commitment whatsoever on either of the parties hereto, except as may be provided in activity-specific agreement(s) that may be entered into subsequently.

9. Tenure and Termination

- 9.1 This Memorandum of Understanding will be in force for a period of five years from the date of signing of the same by authorized representatives of the two parties, and may be continued thereafter subject to such other terms, conditions and validity as may be mutually agreed upon.
- 9.2 Notwithstanding sub-clause 9.1., this MoU may be terminated by either party by issuing a six months notice in writing to the other party prior to the desired termination date. However, both parties agree that all continuing obligations to students, staff, funding bodies or other entities are met in full subsequent to the notice of termination.
- 9.3 Once terminated, neither party will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other party may suffer.

10. Arbitration Clause

- 10.1 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Memorandum of Understanding or relating to its enforcement will be resolved by the parties hereto amicably. However, if the dispute remains unresolved, it shall be referred to an Arbitrator to be appointed by mutual consent of both the parties.

10.2 The place of arbitration shall be at either of the institutes or a place mutually agreed upon, and the arbitration proceedings shall be as provided under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both the parties.

10.3 All legal disputes shall be subjected to the jurisdiction of the Courts in Varanasi

This MoU is signed subject to approval of the respective academic/administrative bodies.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF THE PARTIES HERETO HAVE EXECUTED THIS MoU ON THE DATE SET FORTH ABOVE.

The parties, having discussed fields of common research and academic interests and allied activities between the two institutions, have decided to enter into long-term collaboration for promotion of Students' Training/Postgraduate Research/ Capacity Building in cutting edge areas.

AND WHEREAS it has been considered convenient to agree in writing to participate jointly in the projects and research works requiring expertise and logistics from both the parties.

Article 1. Scope

WHEREAS the "First Party" is involved in the studies on Vegetable improvement along with its production and protection aspects as specified/ mandated domain within the approved disciplines/divisions, AND WHEREAS the "Second Party", is a Govt. aided College involved in Teaching, Research & Extension of Agriculture, Sciences and Social Sciences.

The First party will recognize the Second party as a institute for conducting research and training and will seek joint ventures on collaborative research, training, project formulation & implementation. The Second party will recognize the First party as an Institute for conducting complete/ partial research related to the thesis requirement of the Post Graduate/research students for dissertation/Ph.D. degree. The Second party will recognize Scientists of the ICAR Institute as recommended by its Director in accordance with the University rules and regulations for guiding students working for the said degree. The training and research costs as prescribed by ICAR will be borne by faculty, staff, research scholars and students of second party.

Operational details of research effort and collaboration will be made in common research programmes and/or projects restricted to specific mandated domain within the approved disciplines/divisions.

Research instrumentation facility and library facilities available with the both parties will be made available for the utilization of scientists, faculty, students and research scholars of both parties. However, the costs of specific consumables will be borne by the respective organizations.

There shall be an exchange of scientists, faculties, staff & students for academic, research and training purposes. Accommodation in the Hostel shall be arranged, wherever possible, as per the availability and on the prevailing rates. In the event of non-availability for any reason, the students will have to make their own arrangements for boarding and lodging. The duration of exchange visits will be determined by mutual consent between both the parties.

The second party shall take up joint research programs of mutual interest.

Article 2. Management

The competent authorities of the First party and the Principal/ Dean Agriculture of the Second party will be responsible to work out operational details of co-operation between the two organizations and ensure proper and effective implementation of this MoU.

The Advisory Committee will meet at least once in a year alternatively in the institutions of the First party and the Second party to review the activities. This meeting shall include presentation on the research, academic, project, extension and training activities, which should be open to the students, faculty and scientists.

Article 3. Exchange of Information

The term "information" includes scientific or technical data, results and/or methods of investigation, and other information intended to be provided, exchanged, or arising under project descriptions entered into pursuant to this MoU.

The parties support the widest possible dissemination of information related to the collaborative research program. Each party in joint projects shall be given the right to use, disclose, publish or disseminate such information for research and academic purposes.

Article 4. General Provisions

It is understood that the First party and the Second party subscribe to the principle of equal opportunity and do not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, caste or religion. Both the Institutions shall abide by these principles in the administration of this agreement and neither party shall impose criteria for exchange of scholars or students, which violate principles of non-discrimination.

Both parties understand that all financial agreements will have to be negotiated separately and will depend on the availability of funds.

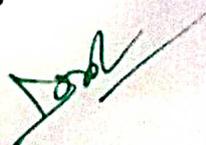

Both parties acknowledge that exchange of scientists, faculty, staff and students from one party to the other shall be subject to the availability of funds and shall comply with the regulations and policies of the First party and the Second party.

A copy of the thesis/dissertation will be submitted to the First Party after the award of the degree by the Second Party.

All questions related to this MoU arising during its term will be settled by the parties by mutual agreement. Disagreements at the operating level shall be forwarded to respective higher officials for appropriate resolution failing which an arbitrator of mutual acceptance may be identified for the settlement of dispute, if any.

All questions not foreseen related to this MoU will be handled by the parties by mutual agreement.

Nothing in this MoU is intended to affect other cooperation or collaborations between the parties.

Article 5. Intellectual Property Rights

Both the parties will be expected to ensure protection of the Intellectual Property Rights generated or likely to be generated during the student's research work. The ICAR as the first applicant (for its institute) and the Second party shall be the joint applicants for IPRs and the students and involved scientific staff shall be included as the inventor/breeder/author. The 'ICAR Guidelines for Intellectual Property Management and Technology Transfer/Commercialization' as amended from time to time shall be the reference for exploitation of the generated intellectual property, whose management and benefits sharing shall be mutually decided in each case.

Any research publications arising will be jointly published in accordance with the provisions laid out in Item 3.2.1C of the Guidelines for the students to conduct research for their degree programme as trainees at ICAR institutions as notified vide Letter No. 2-8/2012-HRD dated 11th December, 2012 or revised guidelines, if any, as may be issued from time to time.

The Supervisor/Co-Supervisor/ Guide/Co-Guide of the student shall be the corresponding author for the publications depending upon the major work carried out at ICAR-IIVR/ UPC and reported in the dissertation/thesis/report.

Patent/IP, if any, shall be dependent on the major work that is carried out either in ICAR- IIVR or UPC. If the major work is carried out at ICAR-IIVR then, Patent/IP protection/registration will be done in the name of ICAR-IIVR as first owner/applicant and if the major work is carried out at UPC then, Patent/IP will be in the name of UPC as first owner/applicant. The work carried out by the students in ICAR-IIVR cannot be published anywhere without the knowledge of the concerned Supervisor/Co-Supervisor/ Guide/Co-Guide from both the parties.

Article 6. Admission and Fees

THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU) is executed at Varanasi on this Twenty First day of May 2023 by and between Udai Pratap College, Varanasi, India, an Autonomous Institution affiliated to MGKVP, Varanasi; recognized by UGC under Section 12 B & 2f of the UGC Act, 1956, having its registered office at Varanasi-221002, India and represented by its Principal Dr. Dharmendra Kumar Singh hereinafter referred to as 'UPC'(which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the First Party;

and

M/S Bharatarambh Initiatives, a Company established and registered under The Companies Act 1956, having its registered office at 5th floor, CDC Building AIC, BHU, Varanasi and represented by its Director herein after referred to as M/S Bharatarambh Initiatives (which expression shall, where the context so admits, mean and include its successors, lawful representatives and permitted assigns) of the Second Party (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties" and individually as "the Party"). WITNESSETH AS FOLLOWS:-

PURPOSE OF MOU

In particular, this MOU is intended to

1. Enhance entrepreneurial mindsets among the students of UPC
2. Organize various workshops on Entrepreneurship Development
3. Conduct practical trainings on Skill and Entrepreneurship Development
4. Generate self-employment opportunities

5. Assist the students in establishing various start-ups

6. Arrange the placement of trained students

Considering their common interest in promoting the mutual cooperation in the area of, skill based training, education, research and Entrepreneurship Development; Desiring to expand the basis for academic and educational cooperation; and Pursuant to the prevailing laws and regulations in their respective areas/domain/jurisdictions, as well as the procedures and policy of the Government of India/Government of Uttar Pradesh concerning academic and educational cooperation;

NOW THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE MUTUAL PROMISES SET FORTH IN THIS MOU, THE PARTIES HERE TO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Clause 1

CO-OPERATION

1.1 Both parties are united by common interests and objectives, and they shall establish channels of communication and co-operation that will promote and advance their respective operations. The parties shall keep each other informed of potential opportunities and share all information that may be relevant to secure additional opportunities for one another.

1.2 The co-operation between First Party and Second Party will facilitate effective utilization of the intellectual capabilities of the Second Party providing significant inputs to them in developing suitable teaching/ training systems, keeping in mind the needs of the First Party

1.3 The goal is to work towards an enriching collaboration between UPC and M/S Bharatarambh Initiatives, with a commitment to proffer an empowered human capital to the Nation which would be developed by the two parties through insightful exchange of technical training/ learning resources, technology scaffolds and immense caliber of the students, for which both the parties agree:

Clause 2

SCOPE OF THE MOU

2.1 Both parties believe that close co-operation between the two would be a major benefit to the student community to enhance their skills and knowledge.

2.2 The Second Party will give valuable inputs to the First Party in teaching/ training methodology so that the students fit into the industrial scenario meaningfully. The two parties will jointly organize short-term training programmes on topics of mutual interest.

2.3 The interaction between Industry and UPC will give an insight into the latest developments /requirements of the industries; the Second Party to permit the Faculty and Students of the First Party to visit the company in groups and also involve them in Industrial Training Programs. The industrial training and exposure provided to students through this association will build confidence and prepare the students to have a smooth transition from academic to working career. The Second Party will provide its Labs/ Workshops/ Industrial Sites for the hands-on training of the learners enrolled with the First Party.

2.4 The Second Party will train the students of the First Party on the emerging technologies in order to bridge the gap in skill and make them ready for industry.

2.7 UPC and M/S Bharatarambh Initiatives, will exchange information on research and educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programmes. Further, both the parties agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two parties. The extent of ownership shall be decided mutually depending upon the relative level of intellectual inputs made by the parties. The expenditure incurred and to be incurred for the maintenance of IPR shall be borne by each party equally or in proportion to the extent of ownership as may be decided by authorized authorities of both the institutions mutually. Publications, if any, in respect of the activities covered under this MOU shall be in the names of involved personnel from both parties with their mutual consent to share the authorship. All ethical guidelines of research publication existent at both the Institutions will be followed strictly.

2.8 Both the parties further agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be separately determined and agreed upon by the two parties. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation, etc.

2.9 This MoU, being a co-operative and collaborative understanding for academic excellence and enhancement of skill, shall not create any legal and / or financial commitment whatsoever on either of the parties hereto, except as may be provided in activity-specific agreement(s) that may be entered into subsequently.

Clause 3

3. Tenure and Termination

- 3.1 This Memorandum of Understanding will be in force for a period of five years from the date of signing of the same by authorized representatives of the two parties, and may be continued thereafter subject to such other terms, conditions and validity as may be mutually agreed upon.
- 3.2 Both Parties may terminate this MOU upon 30 calendar days' by issuing a six months notice in writing to the other party prior to the desired termination date. However, both parties agree that all continuing obligations to students, staff, funding bodies or other entities are met in full subsequent to the notice of termination.
- 3.3 Once terminated, neither party will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other party may suffer.

Clause 4

4. Arbitration

- 4.1 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Memorandum of Understanding or relating to its enforcement will be resolved by the parties hereto amicably. However, if the dispute remains unresolved, it shall be referred to an Arbitrator to be appointed by mutual consent of both the parties.
- 4.2 The place of arbitration shall be a place mutually agreed upon, and the arbitration proceedings shall be as provided under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both the parties.
